An Employee's spouse who has access to health care that provides minimum value (as defined by the Affordable Care Act)* through their own employer is not eligible for enrollment in the Bradley University Health Plan, regardless of the cost to the spouse and regardless of whether the spouse has been offered an incentive to decline such coverage. The Bradley University Health Plan does not provide secondary coverage on a spouse who has primary coverage.

Flexible Spending Account

The Flexible Spending Account is administered by Benefit Planning Consultants (BPC). The Flexible Spending Account is a voluntary plan with two provisions: First, it allows full-time employees to pay their employee benefit premiums with tax-free dollars. Secondly, full-time employees may also set aside tax-free dollars to help pay for un-reimbursed medical expenses and/or dependent care. The money you contribute to either FSA account is not subject to payroll taxes, so you end up paying less in taxes and taking home more of your paycheck.

The Flexible Spending Account can be utilized when enrolled in either the PPO or the Qualified High Deductible Plan (IRS rules apply; see the Health Savings Account (HSA) section, next).

FSA Medical – 2024 annual limit is $3,200. You have two ways to access the funds in your account – via auto reimbursement or manual submission of claims. You have immediate access to 100% of your elected total, regardless of what is actually in your account.

Auto reimbursement is the default. Claims are automatically submitted from BCBS to BPC and then reimbursed to you through an established direct deposit account or a paper check will be mailed to you. Direct deposits are processed daily; paper checks only once a week. You can select your method of reimbursement in ADP.

FSA Dependent Care – Current annual limit is $5,000. This account is used to pay for eligible dependent care services, such as preschool, summer day camp, before- or after-school programs, and child or adult daycare. Access to the funds in the Dependent Care FSA is limited to the amount that is currently in your account at the time you request reimbursement.

Use it or lose it rule: Both FSAs are a calendar year benefit (Jan 1-Dec 31). However, you have until March 31st of the following calendar year to incur more expenses to use up any remaining funds; claims must be submitted for reimbursement by April 30th. Any money not claimed by April 30th will be forfeited.

Health Savings Account (HSA)

If you are enrolled in a Qualified High Deductible Health Plan, you can establish a tax-exempt Health Savings Account with your own funds. The 2024 limit is $4,150 (single) or $8,300 (family). Employees age 55+ can contribute an additional $1,000. These funds may be used to pay for qualified medical, dental, and prescription services. Unlike an FSA, your HSA dollars roll over from year to year.

To contribute to an HSA you must first establish an HSA at a bank of your choice – Bradley does not provide this service. Once the HSA is opened, you need to enroll in ADP and complete an HSA Direct Deposit form so payroll knows where to send your contributions. Claiming eligible expenses is between you & the IRS; however, once you reach age 65 you can use your HSA funds for anything you wish.

Basic Life Insurance

Basic Life Insurance is available on a contributory basis through Standard. Bradley University provides a free $2500.00 policy and the employee has the option of increasing the benefit to 1 times their salary. The University pays two-thirds of the total premium for each full-time employee. Coverage is effective on the first of the month following the date of employment. The amount of the insurance is based on the employee's annual contract salary. The accidental death and dismemberment coverage is equal to the life insurance coverage. We have open enrollment for life insurance every November this allows employees to make changes to their life insurance coverage. The life insurance plan year runs from January 1st through December 31st.

Voluntary Buy-Up Life Insurance

Employees who enroll in the Basic Group Term Life may also elect “buy-up” life insurance equal to 1-times their annual salary, not to exceed $75,000. The premium is based on the employee's annual salary, less the $2,500 of the free Basic Group Term Life.

Voluntary Life Insurance

Employees also have an opportunity to buy additional life insurance through Standard. Voluntary life insurance coverage can be purchased in $10,000 increments (employee pays full premium) up to 5 times their annual wages with a maximum benefit of $500,000. (Example, employee making $30,000 annually may purchase any amount of additional coverage in $10,000 increments up to $150,000 – 5 times the annual wages.) We have open

Long-Term Disability

Long-term disability insurance is available for all full-time employees through Standard after one year of continuous service at Bradley. New full-time employees are eligible to join immediately if employed by the University within three months of leaving another group total disability insurance plan. The University pays two-thirds of the total premium for employees through a total disability insurance policy on the first $2,000 benefit. Employees may elect to pay 100% of the premium to have additional coverage of up to $5,000 monthly benefit based on salary. If approved, long-term disability becomes effective following the first 180 consecutive days of disability. When eligible for benefits, employees receive 60% of their base monthly salary up to the elected maximum benefit per month, less any benefit from Social Security (including dependents' benefit) and workers' compensation. The benefit paid will never be less than $100. During total disability, the monthly income and the annuity premium benefit will be increased each year by 3% compounded annually.

Long-Term Care

As an employee, you may purchase coverage during the enrollment period through Unum without having to fill out a medical questionnaire, as long as you do not choose benefits that exceed the Guarantee Issue limits. Your enrollment kit contains complete information on the Guarantee Issue limits. If you wait to enroll, you will need to fill out the medical questionnaire and may not be accepted. This benefit is available for employees and family members. The levels of care that this plan could cover include a long term care facility, professional home and community care and total choice home care. This benefit also can include inflation protection. You can select from 4 plan options, each option has 9 levels of monthly benefit and 3 levels of duration.

A new full-time staff member immediately coming from a four year degree granting institution or employees meeting the year of service requirement*, are eligible to participate in the plan. Employees, except students and employees with retirement benefits provided under a collective bargaining agreement, who do not meet the above requirement, are eligible to participate in the TIAA Plan one year from their date of employment. Eligible employees may contribute up to 5% of their base salary and the University matches the contribution up to the amount allowed by the IRS depending on their postretirement benefit selection. If the employee's post retirement selection is the enhanced Defined Contribution Plan then the University will contribute an automatic 2% upon the employee's eligibility date. Eligible employees may voluntarily contribute more to purchase additional annuity benefits. However, University contributions are limited to the extent allowable under IRS Guidelines.

*The term “year of service” is defined as the 12-month period immediately preceding the employee’s date of employment with Bradley University during which the employee was employed in a regular non-student capacity and worked 1,000 or more hours with a four-year bachelor degree granting institution of higher education.
